Truly, I've seen even small children learn to write in cursive in just two weeks using what she wrote. She taught several general rules like "All letters sit on the base line." Then she writes that you should teach the terms for the five strokes as you show how to connect the letters: A short upswing from the base line A tall upswing from the base line A short upswing that curves over to 2 on the clock A short dip kept at the mid point. A short dip that curves over to two on the clock You can read more about using her book for teaching reading by teaching writing. Usually, the capital letters do not connect with the rest of a word, yet these capitals letters can be connected to the rest of a word: A, C, E, H, J, L, M, N, R, U, X, Y.
